Alps

Nestled in the northeastern corner of Italy, standing bright against the brilliant blues of the Adriatic Sea, lies the enchanting old city of Trieste. As the capital city of the Friuli Venezia Giulia region, there is nowhere in this world quite like this beautifully haunting metropolis; its fascinating history and unique location make it one of Europe's best kept secrets... until now.

Open the door to a world of exciting possibilities with this thrilling 5-day adventure as you marvel in Trieste's visual splendour and experience the essence of Italian culture, Habsburg-era architecture and European hospitality that oozes from every inch of the city.

DAY 1

From the moment you step off the plane, we'll take care of you. Relax, unwind and soak in the sheer beauty of the unique Triestine landscape as you meander along the coastline towards your very own personal haven — the luxurious Savoia Excelsior Palace. A sight to behold in itself as an elegant artefact of early 20th century architecture, this hotel was once often frequented by Emperors, and it's easy to see why. Magical views overlooking the Gulf of Trieste will leave you transfixed and itching to explore more.

Once you've settled into this majestic hotel, we'll guide you to the heart of the old city, sharing our extensive knowledge of the top local hotspots and hidden gems so you can indulge in the very best this unique city has to offer. If you aren't ready for the day to end there, don't worry — Trieste is known for its exciting nightlife with a vast array of entertaining bars and delicious restaurants on every street. But make sure you get a good rest, because your adventure is just beginning and Day 2 promises much, much more.

DAY 2

What better way to explore the glorious Gulf of Trieste than with your very own luxury sailboat. Set sail through the glittering blue waters of the Adriatic Sea towards surrounding towns that are each uniquely enriched by their own fascinating histories. Lose yourself in the region's many grand castles as you wander along the cobbled footpaths that wind around the Venetian-inspired architecture of Muggia, or step back in time to revel in the fascinating ancient history of San Giusto, Spessa or Miramare.

Once you've immersed yourself in all that the surrounding region has to offer, the majestic Teatro Lirico Giuseppe Verdi awaits. Don't forget to look up and admire the ornate ceiling in the neoclassical icon as you sit back and enjoy a dazzling evening of culturally rich performances steeped with raw emotion followed by an unforgettable traditional Italian dinner of the finest and most delicious local produce.

Forget planes, trains or cars — revel in all that the Alps has to offer by making your way through the incredible areas of natural beauty by foot, horseback or bike to truly soak it all in. Begin the day with a romantic hike across the Duino cliffs, and follow the meandering pathway that pulls you on a journey of sweeping panoramic views of the Gulf of Trieste from abandoned bunkers and the delights of the wildlife that decorate the landscape.

Take a break from the glorious weather and descend deep into the darkness of the Grotta Gigante or Grotta Torri di Silvia caves, marvelling at the astonishing natural delights of the stalagmites and stalactites. If your feet and your eyes are itching for more, immerse yourself in the beauty of the Italian landscape by hiking, riding or driving the Rilke trail, the stunning scenic route that connects the villages Sistiana and Duino, or by making the pilgrimage between the Karst and Istria. The spellbinding Alpine scenery sets the perfect stage for exploration, and whichever mode of transport you choose, we're sure you won't regret it.

For lovers of golf, it's time to grab your golf clubs and hit the greens of the breathtaking Grado Golf Club. This phenomenal 18 hole championship golf course is arguably the most beautiful golfing venue in all of Italy, boasting stunning lagoon views and the perfect climate all year round. Take a day to bask in its natural beauty and practice your putting before heading back to the city for another unforgettable Italian dinner at one of Trieste's many culinary gems.

For those who would prefer to explore a different kind of green, the day is yours to traverse the area's stunning surroundings by bicycle, horseback or on foot. The region features an array of both natural and manmade structures that need to be seen to be believed. Why not follow in the footsteps of the Ancient Romans along the scenic pathway connecting Aquileia to Tergeste known as the iconic Sentiero Gemina? With a captivating landscape like this, you can't go wrong.

After a long day enjoying the many natural wonders of the Alpine scenery, it's time to bask in the glorious evening sun and indulge in an unforgettable Italian dinner of your choice. Whether your tastebuds long for a traditional spaghetti alle vongole or you'd like to try something new with a 10course gastronomy menu, we'll help you find the perfect meal to remember your Triestine adventure by.

DAY 5

After breakfast, we'll escort you to the airport in comfort for your return flight home. Sit back and relax as you soak in the magnificent views from the back seat — we take care of the rest.

Oyrone's unique luxury holiday packages are tailored to suit your every need in order to deliver a simply unforgettable Triestine experience. General Conditions of Contract and Travel (AVRB)

The following provisions form an integral part of the contract concluded between Oyrone Ltd, our travel partner ACAPA Tours GmbH and you. By accepting your written, telephone or personal registration, the contract is concluded between you and ACAPA Tours GmbH (and / or the service provider / organizer). The provisions and notes on the invoice shall also apply. Also the AVRB of the respective organizer or service providers. We would like to draw your attention to the fact that the Swiss Federal Law on Package Travels of June 18, 1993, which came into effect on 1 July 1994, basically regulates only the interests of package tours according to Article 1. Flight tickets and other individual services of transport companies (bus, taxi, rental car, etc.) as well as hotel bookings or similar offers of service providers, which are all listed as individual services on the invoice or which point to a separate detail on the invoice, are not subject to the Swiss Federal Law. For this purpose, e.g. the Warsaw Convention or the Montreal Convention on Air Transport regulates the rights and obligations of consumers and service providers.

Complaints due to non-fulfilment during a journey are to be announced immediately on the spot to the organizer (the local tour guide) and the service provider (transport company, hotel, etc.). If this is not possible, these must be sent to ACAPA Tours GmbH within 14 days in writing, with reasons. Price increases are. Section 6 of the Swiss Federal Law regulates the rescission of package travel. For flight tickets and hotel (and / or similar character) bookings the terms and conditions of the respective tariff apply.

The liability of ACAPA Tours GmbH is limited by the content of Articles 14, 15 and 16 of the Swiss Federal Law, or for travel which does not fall under package travel according to Swiss Federal Law. Securing and refunding of paid amounts in the sense of the above Swiss Federal Law in the event of insolvency of individual organizers, is guaranteed by the guarantee fund of the Swiss Travel Agency Association.

The relationship between ACAPA Tours GmbH and you are governed by Swiss law, with jurisdiction being Brugg / AG.

Some explanations on the AVRB:

1. We shall be liable for the damages suffered by the customer during the trip, insofar as it is a matter of malicious preparation of ours or of false information, which represents a breach of the original agreement. Liability claims may include damage caused by force majeure, war, civil disturbances, strikes, epidemics, natural catastrophes, breakdowns or technical defects of transport equipment, sovereign requirements such as the removal of land rights without the fault of the tour operator, seizures or incidents the above-mentioned examples. Furthermore, damages which are caused by the customer's own behavior are excluded.

2. We can not accept liability for third-party culpable behavior, such as carriers, hoteliers, vehicle rental companies, eventual intermediaries or other travel agents.

3. Every organizer or service provider, as well as us, ACAPA Tours, reserves the right to make changes to the program for important reasons (changes to airlines or types of flights, changes in the timetable and timetables). The same applies to hotel accommodation and other services, whereby we endeavor to find equivalent substitute services in order to preserve the character of the trip as far as possible. If the number of participants is not reached for the special flight (charter), the organizer reserves the right to change this route to a substitute flight or scheduled flight. We undertake to inform the customer about such changes as far as this is possible in terms of time and technology. We are not liable for changes in the program due to delays in transportation. The airlines reserve the right to make short-term changes to the flight times in the interests of international, national and local take-off and landing regulations, as well as technical changes. We will reimburse the customer for any price differences resulting from changes to the program in favor of the participant. On the other hand, we reserve the right to further unavoidable additional costs in connection with changes to the program, which we were not aware of at the time of conclusion of the travel contract (for example cancellation of a charter rotation); this regulation also applies in the event that the traveler has to cancel the trip prematurely.

4. Our prices have been calculated on the basis of the tariffs, prices and exchange rates valid at the time of printing the brochures of the various organizers. Flight prices for special tickets as well as tickets which have been calculated and offered on the basis of the IATA price structure are valid at the time of the offer, and after ticket issuance, in the event the entries entered in the ticket are not changed. Price adjustments as a result of fuel prices for transport means of any kind, taxes etc. are also expressly reserved. Any price increases will be billed before travel or can be collected directly before departure.

5. If a trip cannot be carried out for any reason (for example, due to insufficient participation, force majeure, deportation or withdrawal of land, fuel shortages, disturbances, strikes, etc.), we shall notify the customer as soon as possible. The amount paid by the Customer will be refunded in such case, without prejudice to any further claims and without deduction. Naturally, in such a case, we are endeavoring to offer the customer an equivalent program.

6. If the customer does not make full or partial use of the services booked by him, no (or only according to the organizer or service provider) will be refunded. Likewise, in such cases, any liability is excluded.

7. We accept no liability for late arrival at the customer's departure port.

8. If a booking and invoicing is made by a third person (clubs, companies, etc.), the same is responsible for the fact that our travel conditions are communicated to the participants in time.

And if you still have to cancel a booked trip? In your interest, please inform us as soon as possible. Some operators or service providers charge the cancellation fees in percent / days before departure. In the case of special air tickets, the cancellation costs will be up to 100 per cent from 30 days or more before arrival. In order to cover our additional costs, we charge a fee in addition to the cancellation costs of the organizers or service providers: CHF 40.- per person, maximum of CHF 120.- per order. Also our effective costs such as telephones, faxes, visa fees, etc., will be charged against cancellation costs (only with non-voluntary rescission) you can protect yourself with a special insurance.
